

FOULDS, Mary Louise "Louise"
(née Matthew)
1921 – 2013

Passed away at home on Thursday, June 6. She is sorely missed by her husband of 71 years, Philip Foulds; daughter Barbara Selley (David); grandson Chris Selley; her sister Barbara Foulds (Derek) and nine nieces and nephews. She was a sister of the late Dee Dee Strickland. Louise was a wife, homemaker, cook and hostess extraordinaire; a liberal thinker; a poet (penning pithy verse on events locally and around the world); a family historian; a singsong instigator; a crossword puzzle devotee; a lover of all dogs, cats and pigeons that crossed her path; and a friend of many in Kingsville, Toronto and beyond—including the "thundering herd" of St. Hilda's 4T2 and special friends Jane Grayson, Gypsy Carroll and Lea Livelo, her caring companion of the past year. A memorial gathering will be held Saturday, June 15, 2013 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Morley Bedford Funeral Home, 159 Eglinton Avenue West, Toronto (2 lights west of Yonge Street). At a later date, there will be a gathering at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Olinda in Ruthven, Ontario where she was the historian and a chaplain for a number of years. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Temmy Latner Centre for Palliative Care or the Unitarian Universalist Church of Olinda. Condolences may be forwarded through
